Ten movies for families to share

A friend tells me, "Movies are society's communal dreams projected onto the big screen."
 Judging by many of the "thrillers" coming out, one might say there are a lot of communal nightmares happening. Yet there are also some wonderful films, which are uplifting, inspiring, and even character building. In an attempt to compile an unofficial list of favorite movies that families enjoy watching together, I gathered suggestions from dozens of families. I was amazed at just how much fun people had simply discussing the issue. Here are 10 family favorites that were on almost everybody's list:

- The Wizard of Oz
  - The Sound of Music
  - Finding Nemo
  - October Sky
  - The Lion King
  - It's a Wonderful Life
  - Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory
  - A Christmas Story
- For kids 12 and over these can start your list:
- To Kill a Mockingbird
  - Stand by Me

PARISH NURSE PROGRAM:
 Men are doing more of the cooking today. A reminder that your kitchen can be a fertile ground for bacteria. Store raw meat, poultry, & fish separate from other food in the frig. Use different cutting boards & wash the boards in the dishwasher or HOT, soapy water after each use. Wash your hands before and in between preparing different foods. BE YOUR OWN ADVOCATE and STAY HEALTHY during the upcoming holidays.
