FESTIVAL SPOTLIGHT

Silent Auction

The Silent Auction has been chaired for the past several years by Jacque Bittner and Cathy Theis. They have really made this a great event and have been increasing the profits by a substantial amount each year.

All silent auction items are donated by parishioners. Some ideas for donated goods are wood crafts, different filled baskets (kids stuff, wine, coffee etc), pictures or any other larger item. Please contact Jacque at 758-7245 or Cathy at 461-2636 if you have any questions. Donated items can be given to either Jacque or Cathy anytime between now and the week of the festival. The sooner the better so they can start getting things organized.

Thank you to Jacque and Cathy for doing such a great job!

Snack Bar

Sam & Kerri Schoenbauer have been chairing the snack bar for the last several years with great success. They were joined in recent years by Mick & Cheryl Kotek. The snack bar is open immediately following mass and remains open until 6:00 PM. The profits in the snack bar have been steadily growing in the past few years. The menu includes awesome hot beef sandwiches, pork burgers, grilled brats with sauerkraut, taco in a bag, nacho chips with cheese dip, and assorted candies along with ice cold water and pop. The snack bar is a great choice for the smaller appetite or for later in the day. You can also get a slice of home made pie if one was not enough at dinner. It takes several shifts of dedicated workers to ensure great customer service – so thanks in advance to all the workers. Also a big thanks to Sam & Kerri and Mick & Cheryl!
