FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Go and Make Disciples

Each year someone representing the missions visits every parish. They tell about the particular mission in which they are involved, raise funds to help them continue their work, and ask for prayers that their work will be fruitful. Their visit also raises our awareness of a very important characteristic of the Church. It is missionary by its very nature. As the common usage of the word indicates, one who is on a mission has been sent to accomplish a particular goal. The word "mission" comes from a Latin word meaning "to send." Jesus is clear that He was sent by the Father. His goal was one of salvation. "For God so loved the world that he gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him" (John 3:16-17). The Church continues and directly shares in that mission: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations" (Mt. 28:19). "The Church on earth is by her nature missionary since, according to the plan of the Father, she has as her origin the mission of the Son and the Holy Spirit. The ultimate purpose of mission is none other than to make men share in the communion between the Father and the Son in their Spirit of love" (Catechism 850).

WILL YOU PRAY FOR A PRIEST EACH DAY? June 27: Fr. Michael O'Connell, June 28: Fr. Stephen O'Gara, June 29: Fr. Kenneth O'Hotto, June 30: Abp. Bernard Hebda, July 1: Pope Francis, July 2: Fr. Michael Miller, July 3: Fr. Jules Omba Omalanga.

Eternal Father, we lift up to You these and all the priests of the world. Sanctify them. Heal and guide them. Mold them into the likeness and holiness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus name we pray. Amen.

One would think that the Church would be welcomed in every age and place as it brings such good: salvation, truth, and communion with God. And yet we know that just the opposite has happened and continues to occur all throughout the world. The message of truth is met with the cynicism of Pontius Pilate, "What is truth?" (John 18:38). The message of salvation and communion with God is met with indifference and rejection. "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come... Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business. The rest laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them" (Mt. 22:2-3; 5-6). The numerous stories of missionary martyrs are both shocking in their brutality and inspiring in their courageous witness of faith. When we ask the question why this is so we must remember the words of our Lord, "If the world hates you, realize that it hated me first. If you belonged to the world, the world would love its own... No slave is greater than his master. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you" (John 15:18-20).

And so the Church continues her mandate to bring truth and salvation to the world. Every member of the Church must support this mission in some way: by prayer, financial support, or even to respond to the call to go personally. First we must each respond to the Church's call to live the truth in our daily lives. Then we can be effective instruments of the truth wherever we are, conscious of the dignity of belonging to that body, the Church, which has been sent into the world to bear witness to the truth.
