GLOBAL SOLIDARITY SUNDAY: On June 18, the Feast of Corpus Christi, the parishes of the Archdiocese will acknowledge its interdependence with Catholics around the world through its celebration of Global Solidarity Sunday. Each Catholic has been called by their baptism to be one with God and to care for one another. Each has their own gifts to share, although for some, their gifts have been obscured by poverty, oppression or lack of education. Global solidarity calls us to share our gifts so that others' gifts can be released. The second collection on Global Solidarity Sunday will go to relief and development efforts of Catholic Relief Services, and to Catholic Church in Africa which will capacitate church leaders to release their gifts to respond to the pastoral needs of the African Church.

GREAT AMEN

"Amen" means "So be it." It means, "I believe." It means "The truth has been spoken." And it's a little like clicking the "Send" button after you've written an e-mail. It gives your prayer the wings it uses to fly toward God in heaven.

We conclude many prayers at mass with an Amen. The Glory to God, the opening prayer, the Creed, the prayer over the gifts, the doxology after the Lord's Prayer, and the prayer after communion all end with the word "Amen." When you receive the Body and Blood of the Lord at communion, you answer "Amen."

But amid all these Amens, one is traditionally called "great"—the one that concludes the Eucharistic prayer.

The Great Amen is great because of what it says Amen to. Throughout the Eucharistic prayer, we have been praying in thanksgiving for the wonderful things God does for us, and we have been praying in petition for the living and the dead. Most importantly, we have been praying that the Holy Spirit would change the bread and wine on the altar into the Body and Blood of Christ. This prayer, the most powerful prayer in human history, concludes with an Amen that can only be called "great."

Because of the significance of the Amen, it is one of the acclamations that we are encouraged to sing at mass. Usually the priest will sing the preceding words, which refer to Christ: "Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, almighty Father, for ever and ever."

To those words, all we can say and all we must say is "Amen."

May 25, 2006 Message from Our Lady of Mediugorje:

"Dear Children! Also today I call you to put into practice and to live my messages that I am giving you. Decide for holiness, little children, and think of heaven. Only in this way will you have peace in your heart that no one will be able to destroy. Peace is a gift, which God gives you in prayer. Little children, seek and work with all your strength for peace to win in your hearts and in the world. Thank you for having responded to my call."
