MISSION STATEMENT

THE CATHOLIC CHURCHES OF ST. PATRICK OF CEDAR LAKE TOWNSHIP AND ST. CATHERINE OF SPRING LAKE TOWNSHIP ARE COMMUNITIES OF LOVING AND CARING PEOPLE CENTERED IN JESUS CHRIST.

Thus we:

- * Celebrate our faith through partaking in the Eucharist and the Sacraments;
- * Share in teaching the Word of God through preaching, education, and service;
- * Work together to provide spiritual care, direction and fellowship, and to promote charity and justice for all;
- * Share our time, talents, and treasures with our families, parish, and surrounding communities;

WE DO THIS BECAUSE CHRIST SAID "LOVE ONE ANOTHER...,"
 THROUGH LOVE, WE WILL GROW IN UNION WITH GOD AND PEOPLE.

VISION STATEMENT

Working together, results are forever.

ST. KATHARINE DREXEL (1858-1955)

Young Katharine Drexel made headlines in 1889 when she entered a convent and gave up the family banking fortune, then valued at $7 million. Rather than live a life of advantage, the Philadelphia-born heiress wanted to devote herself to the education of Native Americans and African-Americans.

Despite the luxury and privilege she knew in her early years, Katharine was exposed to the realities of poverty. Her father and stepmother shared their wealth with the poor and welcomed the needy to their home several times each week. In a private audience with Pope Leo XIII, Katharine, then 20, pleaded with him to help the neglected Native Americans by sending priests to serve them. "Why not become a missionary yourself?" the pontiff replied.

It took another 10 years before she answered the Holy Father's question—and God's call. Finding no religious order that answered her sense of mission, Katharine Drexel received permission to found the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament. She drew on trust funds established by her father at his death and organized a system of schools and missions for Native Americans as well as blacks.

Perhaps her most noteworthy achievement was the establishment of Xavier University of New Orleans in the mid-1920's, the first university for blacks in the United States. Katharine Drexel, who lived to 96, was a daring, prophetic and resourceful woman who knew that God had work for her to do on behalf of two peoples who had been largely overlooked in the 19th-century America.

At her canonization in 2000, Pope John Paul II praised her for choosing "to give not just her fortune but her whole life totally to the Lord." Her feast day is March 3.
