WILL YOU PRAY FOR A PRIEST EACH DAY?

August 15: Fr. Christopher Shofner, August 16: Fr. Paul Shovelain, August 17: Fr. Pascal Siben, August 18: Fr. Earl Simonson, August 19: Fr. Antony Skaria, August 20: Fr. Michael Skluzacek, August 21: Fr. Larry Snyder.

Eternal Father, we lift up to You these and all the priests of the world. Sanctify them. Heal and guide them. Mold them into the likeness and holiness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus name we pray. Amen.

FROM THE PASTOR

Magnificat Anima Mea

For centuries, countless priests, religious, and laity repeated these words of Mary each evening during the official prayer of the Church called the Divine Office. "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord..." From at least the 400's it has been a part of the Office called Vespers, or Evening Prayer. Through the words of Mary to Elizabeth (Luke 1:46-55) the Church recalls the great things God has done for us and rejoices. On the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which we celebrate on August 15, we recall one of those great things that God has done for Mary, and that He has promised to us. She was brought up, assumed into heaven, body and soul, that she may enjoy the fullness of the Resurrection. "Finally, the Immaculate Virgin, preserved free from all stain of original sin, when the course of her earthly life was finished, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, and exalted by the Lord as Queen over all things, so that she might be the more fully conformed to her Son, the Lord of lords and conqueror of sin and death" (Catechism, 966).

The Assumption of Mary was solemnly defined as a dogma of our faith on November 1st, 1950 by Pope Pius XII in an Apostolic Constitution called Munificentissimus Deus, (Most bountiful God). Like the Immaculate Conception, it was believed by Catholics, and celebrated in the liturgy for centuries. The belief makes sense on so many levels. St. Francis de Sales put it so simply, "What son would not bring his mother back to life and would not bring her into paradise after her death if he could?" (Munif. Deus, 35). Jesus spoke so lovingly to His disciples about the place that He was going to prepare for them. "And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be" (John 14:3). Naturally this applies to Mary.

But the Assumption is not only about Mary, it is also intimately connected to our own destiny. Our destiny and goal is heaven. We believe that when we die we will be judged, "for we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil" (2 Cor. 5:10). If we are found worthy of heaven, our soul will enjoy the vision of God and we will experience a joy and happiness that is beyond our power to imagine. But there still is something incomplete. We need to be reunited with our bodies. The human person has a body and a soul. It is only when they are united that we are complete. "In death, the separation of the soul from the body, the human body decays and the soul goes to meet God, while awaiting its reunion with its glorified body. God, in His almighty power, will definitively grant incorruptible life to our bodies by reuniting them with our souls, through the power of Jesus' Resurrection" (Catechism, 997). In Mary's Assumption this has already taken place. She did not have to wait: it is "a singular participation in her Son's Resurrection and an anticipation of the resurrection of other Christians" (966). Her Assumption is "the beginning and the pattern of the Church in its perfection, and a sign of hope and comfort for your people on their pilgrim way" (Preface of the Assumption). We look upon her and see what God has in store for us. When we are there we will understand Mary's words, and say them with her, "My body and soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord...the Almighty has done great things for me and holy is His name."

SYNOD 2022: Archdiocesan Synod kicks into high gear this fall and your input is needed to help Archbishop Hebda chart the course for this local Church. Join a small group to discuss and give feedback on priorities within each Synod focus areas. You can find more information at archspm.org/synod. There are also sign up sheets in the back of church. The filled out forms can be left in the labeled box in the back of church.

Our Lady of Medjugorje's July 25, 2021 Message to the World:

"Dear Children! I am calling you to be prayer for all those who do not pray. Little children, witness with your lives the joy that you are mine, and God will heed your prayers and give you peace in this peaceful world where pride and selfishness reign. Little Children, you be generous and be the love of my love, so that pagans can feel that you are mine and convert to my Immaculate Heart. Thank you for having responded to my call."
